

Hi & Welcome

I'm glad you're here

Congratulations on your engagement! I'm so glad you've found your way here. I know wedding planning can feel overwhelming - especially choosing the right photographer when you'd rather avoid the camera. Maybe you're thinking "We hate having our photos taken," or you worry it might feel awkward. Trust me, you're not alone. With 20 years of experience as an actor and teacher, I've learned how to put even the shyest couples instantly at ease.

Think of me as a calm friend on your wedding day, not just someone with a camera. I'm here to guide you gently and capture your story exactly as it happens, without any cheesy poses or forced smiles. Take a deep breath - you can relax. You're in the right place to make this part of your wedding easy, and the results will be photos that feel truly you.

A bit about me

Why I do what I do

I'm Tom - a hopeless romantic and a total adventure-seeker. I adore love stories and feel honored to be part of this important chapter in your life. For two decades I've been acting and teaching, which means I know a thing or two about helping people feel comfortable under the spotlight. Now I bring all of that to your wedding. Every couple is unique, and I celebrate that. Whether your vows are on a windswept hill, in a garden full of flowers, or barefoot on the beach, I'm there for it - camera in hand, heart wide open. My goal is to know you, to laugh with you, and to capture those raw, joyful moments that make your wedding your day.

My Style

How I do it

My main aim is to help you feel totally at ease - even if the thought of being in front of a camera makes you cringe. No stiff poses, no awkward instructions, and absolutely no cheesy smiles. Just the two of you, being yourselves, with all the real emotion that comes with it.

I'll guide you gently with a few relaxed prompts, maybe a little game or two, and some questions to get you thinking about your story - how you met, the moments you've shared, and the future you're building together. It's a simple, natural way to bring out everything from proper belly laughs to those soft, quiet, heartfelt moments.

Packages

All include

A pre-wedding catch-up

This is our final chat before the big day – a chance to go over all the details so we’re completely on the same page. We can do it over the phone, on Zoom, or meet for a coffee in Truro (or nearby if you’re local!). It’s relaxed and informal, just a lovely opportunity to check in and make sure everything’s feeling good.

Your wedding photos - edited with care

You’ll receive a minimum of 150 images for shorter coverage (like 3 hours), and 600+ for a full day – all individually hand-edited in my signature style. Your photos will be delivered via a private online gallery, ready to share, download, print, or turn into an album.

And of course... me!

I’ll be there on the day, not just as your photographer but as a calm, supportive presence. I’ll help keep things running smoothly, gently guide when needed, and be right there to capture the magic as it unfolds – all while making sure you’re having the time of your lives.

No matter which package you choose, you’ll have one less thing to worry about. Consider it a gift of peace of mind: you can relax and enjoy your wedding knowing the photography is completely in good hands.

But that's not all...

Pre-wedding shoot

Why book a pre-wedding shoot?

Not sure what to expect on the wedding day? Let's find out with a pre-wedding shoot (also called an engagement session). We'll pick a location you love - maybe the beach, your favorite park, or even your home - and spend about an hour just having fun with a camera. No awkward posing, just two people being themselves.

This session helps you see how easy it is to work with me. It's low-pressure and actually kind of fun! Afterward, you'll have some beautiful photos of the two of you - a nice bonus before the wedding. Plus, it's practice: ever wondered how a confetti toss mid-ceremony or that first-dance twirl looks? Let's try it out! With more space than your living room and no one watching, you can laugh, dance, or even sip a drink while I click away. By your wedding day, you'll feel confident and ready in front of the camera.

Still looking for a reason to book?

This might just do it.

A Personal Touch - Your Wedding Preview

Here's something special I do that is unique to me: a few days after your wedding, when you might be missing the celebrations, you'll get a surprise preview of your day. I'll send you a short slideshow of highlights set to your first dance song - and guess what? I play it live on the piano.

Yes, I'm a photographer who plays the piano, and I love adding this personal touch. It's a heartfelt way to relive those first moments as a married couple while you wait for the full gallery. You'll see some of your favorite smiles and scenes, and hearing that familiar song brings it all rushing back. It's completely free with every package, and my couples say it's one of their favorite parts of the experience. It just makes everything feel that much more magical.

F.A.Q.'s

What you need to know

- How do we book?

We start with a relaxed, no-pressure chat (phone call, video call, or coffee). When you're ready, I'll send a simple contract and invoice. A £250 booking fee secures your date, with the rest due 6 weeks before the wedding. (If you need a custom payment plan, just let me know.)

- When do we get our photos?

You'll get a few preview images (and your piano slideshow) just days after the wedding to relive those first excited moments. The full gallery is usually ready in 4-6 weeks. I know you can't wait, so I always aim to deliver as soon as I can.

- How do we receive the photos?

Your images come in a private online gallery. You'll get a link to view and download them. You can also share this link with friends and family, and even order prints right from the site.

- Can we request special shots?

Absolutely. About six weeks before your wedding, I'll send you a short questionnaire. You can tell me any must-have group shots, special moments, or creative ideas (like that confetti dip-kiss you've been practicing). Your day, your way - I'm happy to make it happen.

- What are "couple portraits"?

These are a short (15-30 minute) session of just the two of you, taken during a quiet moment in the day. Think of it as a break in the whirlwind — just you two, taking in the day while I capture some beautiful, unposed shots of you together. No rushing, just a peaceful moment.

- How far will you travel?

I'm based in Cornwall, and weddings around Cornwall and South Devon are a breeze for me. If your wedding is farther away, just ask! I'm happy to discuss travel arrangements and will do my best to be there for you, wherever you are.

Ready To Book?

Hopefully by now you're thinking...

"Yes. Tom is exactly who we want!"

If so — amazing! Let's get the ball rolling. Simply get in touch to check your date and I'll send over everything you need to book (contract, invoice, etc.).

If you're still on the fence or have any questions, that's totally fine too. We can hop on a quick call or grab a coffee (cake optional but highly encouraged). I'll answer every question so you feel 100% confident in choosing me.
